

Akins High School Band

Leadership Positions

Marching Band Leadership Team

Drum Major

The Drum Major serves as the primary leader during Marching Season and remains as a top leader throughout the year. Responsibilities include (but are not limited to): conducting the marching band, enforcing all rules, procedures, and policies before, during, and after rehearsals, monitoring, coordinating, and executing student led instructional time, and any other responsibilities deemed appropriate by the band staff.

Brass/Woodwind/Percussion/Guard Captain

The Section Captains assist in supervising their respective sections during the entire school year. They are responsible for monitoring and assisting Section Leaders and Drill Instructors with student led instruction, encouraging and executing student mastery of music and visual responsibilities, maintaining and monitoring all associated equipment, assisting with section rehearsals, and any other responsibilities deemed appropriate by the band staff. The Section Captain also assists during rehearsals with musical and visual elements.

Section Leader

The Section Leader manages all aspects of their respective sections. This includes making sure that all members have all materials, are making appropriate progress regarding musical and visual development, handling their individual responsibilities, and any other responsibilities deemed appropriate by the band staff. The Section Leader also assists during rehearsals with musical and visual elements.

Drill Instructor (Assistant Section Leader)

The Drill Instructor assists in managing all aspects of their respective sections. This includes making sure that all members have all materials, are making appropriate progress regarding musical and visual development, handling their individual responsibilities, and any other responsibilities deemed appropriate by the band staff. The Drill Instructor also assists during rehearsals with visual elements.

Logistics Officer

The Logistics Officer will oversee the Logistics Crew and make sure that all operational and organizational aspects of the AEB are functioning at a high level.

Uniform Officer

The Uniform Officer will oversee the Uniform Crew and make sure that all marching and concert attire are operational and organizational at a high level.

Band Council

The Band Council is made up of the following:

- Band President
- Band Ambassadors
- Social Media Ambassador
- Librarians
- Uniform Crew
- Logistics Crew

Band President

The Band President serves as a primary leader throughout the year. Their primary responsibility is to oversee the functions and activities of the Band Council. With the help of the Band Staff and Logistics Captain, the Band President will organize and assign members of the Band Council duties and responsibilities. The Band President represents the Band Council on the Marching Band Leadership Team and is the primary leader for all Band Council activities. The Band President will work closely with the Band Directors and Ambassadors to plan and execute social and community functions.

Band Ambassadors

The primary responsibility of the Ambassador is to ensure that all new members are inducted and indoctrinated into the Akins Band family fully and quickly. The Ambassadors serve as a “friendly face” for all new members and help keep their voices heard as they adjust to life in high school band. This includes, but is not limited to, organizing events for new members, helping new members understand and live up to expectations, and any other responsibilities as deemed appropriate by the band staff.

Social Media Ambassadors

The primary responsibility of the Social Media Ambassador is to ensure that all of the Akins Social Media accounts are updated and current with the different events, pictures, and video of the Akins Eagle Band.

Librarians

The Librarians are responsible for maintaining all music throughout the year. These individuals are responsible for the organization, copying, and distribution of all music. In addition, these individuals are expected to assist the band staff in all organizational aspects regarding paperwork and facility cleanliness.

Uniform Crew

The Uniform Crew will work as a team to maintain, organize and sort all Marching Band and Concert Uniforms. These aspects include (but are not limited to):

- Organizing and Cleaning the Uniform Room
- Assisting with the Akins Booster members assisting with uniforms
- Uniform Organization and Distribution

Logistic Crew

The Logistic Crew will work as a team to ensure that all logistical aspects of the band program are running efficiently. These aspects include (but are not limited to):

- Marching Rehearsal Setup
- Loading Crew Organization and Execution
- Attendance