

A Letter from our Band Boosters

February 19, 2022

To the participants of the Texas Color Guard Circuit:

Welcome to the Akins High School Winter Guard and Percussion Festival sponsored by the Texas Color Guard Circuit. The entire community of Austin is excited about your visit to Central Texas, and Austin ISD is extremely proud of the incredible staff and parent organization at Akins High School. The success of this event is a reflection of the well-coordinated efforts of the band directors, parents, students, and the community. The Akins Eagle Band family is honored to host such an incredible event.

This outstanding organization, under the leadership of Babatunde Onibudo, strives to model the high-performance standards established in Texas. The staff is highly respected and admired by students, parents, and administrators throughout the Community. The experience you will receive is a culmination of the elevated standards and focused work ethic of the Akins High School team. The band staff and boosters at Akins High School will empower participants in the event to reach their full potential.

We appreciate the opportunity to host this prestigious event for the Texas Color Guard Circuit. We hope you enjoy your experience and wish all the participants the best of luck.

Sincerely,
W. Charles Akins Band Boosters

A few notes:

- There are restrooms inside the fine arts building (near Unit Check-in).
- Props & equipment should move with you to warm-ups. You will be responsible for moving these items, but please let our volunteers know if you need assistance!
- If there is anything too large to move with you, please let us know and we can make arrangements with you.
