ROGER WINSLOW

Roger grew up in Gunnison, Colorado where he earned both Bachelor and Master's Degrees at Western State College. He was also privileged to attend the Western State College Summer Band Camps and studied band method arranging and composition with William Revelli, A.A. Harding, Mark Hindsley, Harold Walters, and Randall Spicer.

Roger has directed bands at Wallace, Idaho; Brownsboro, Texas; DeKalb, Texas; and L.D. Bell High School in Hurst, Texas. After retirement in 1984, he taught private low brass lessons at Smithfield Middle School and Richland High School. Many of his students attained All Region and All State memberships.

Mr. Winslow"s bands received numberous Division 1 ratings, ranked in the top five Honor Band competion three times, and winning 5A Honor Band in 1970. His L.D. Bell Band was one of the first bands in the nation to receive the Sudler Flag of Honor and to be inducted into the J.P. Sousa High School Band Hall of Fame.

In 1993 Roger was selected as a charter member of the Region 5 Band Masters' Hall of Fame, and in 1995, was inducted as a member of the Texas State Bandmasters' Hall of Fame.

Roger and his wife, Lee, currently reside near Mineola, Texas.
